The hosts are very keen to have a strong show of Alfa Romeo cars and have arranged a special car park for them. Members arriving in cars of other makes will be parked in a separate area.

A sketch map is available from the Club Secretary Lynette Pereira for members attending the lunch.

To help with the catering arrangements please phone your acceptance for lunch to the Club Secretary Lynette Pereira on 0733 899 611, or the Club office 020 2229793, 3316160, 2229459 and mobile 0733 732 032.

RED AND BLACK

A mix of red and black will be the chosen theme for members trying to win costume prizes.

There will be awards for the best lady, man and couple. It is hoped that everyone will join in the Valentine spirit and show their creative ability to produce a stunning outfit.

During the afternoon there will be a draw for a lucky prize and raffle tickets will be on sale.

Among the household items already listed are a set of fine French crystal glasses, bottles of wine and crockery. Items of interest to Alfa Romeo owners include two large parts of car care products and a voucher for 10,000 shillings for purchase of tyres from Tyremasters.

To help prepare the list of raffle prizes for the draw which will be held at the Bidwood Suites on Thursday March 21st, the committee would like to receive donations at the Valentine lunch party. The committee would like to put together hampers as prizes so members are welcome to donate wine, chocolates, packets of nuts and festive food items. Ornamental and practical items for homes will also make good raffle prizes.

IMPRESSIVE CLUB SUPPORT FOR THE AFRICA CONCOURS D'ELEGANCE

The support from Alfa Romeo Owners for the CBA Africa Concours d'Elegance is very impressive. Already Alfas have been entered by Peter Wanday, Rishi Chandaria, Auto Viz Limited , Savi Bhogal and Peoponi Autocare Limited.

The Alfa contingent was listed very shortly after the receipt of the first entry which came from Dr. Joseph Aluoch with his Mercedes 300 SE. He is one of the competitors who wears eye catching costumes at the classiest event on the Kenya motorsport calendar and won a prize for appearing as "The Last King of Scotland" wearing his Scottish kilt. It is hoped that more Alfa Romeo competitors will make the effort to win costume prizes in addition to presenting fine cars to the judges.

PREMIERE OF THE CONCOURS TV PROGRAMME AND LAUNCH OF THE REGULATIONS

On Wednesday March 6th at 6:00 p.m. the official launch of the 2019 CBA Africa Concours d'Elegance and the premiere of the TV programme will be held at the Panafric Hotel. Entries which are received on, or before the function will be included in the lucky draw for three cash prizes of 30,000 shillings each.

As the Panafric Hotel car park tends to be congested it is suggested that Concours competitors attending the launch take a taxi. Although the invitation lists 6:00 p.m. as the start time competitors are welcome to arrive earlier to avoid traffic and submitting last minute entries.
